The Problem

With the advancement in technology, many offerings in terms of apps, products, solutions, and services have been introduced, yet they all lacks somewhere.

- ✓ Healthcare practitioners needs to interact with their clients
- ✓ Easy to access and workable dashboard
- ✓ Streamline telehealth function

Not support personalization

Many PsycheTech apps are non-user-friendly. It is pretty time-consuming to learn the software's functions

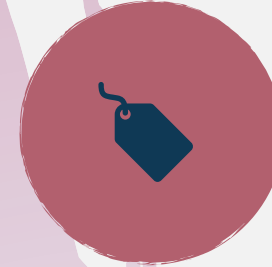

Poor Interaction between users

Psychologists and patients are limited to communicate with each other during their therapy session. Lost connectivity several times with clients

Limited features

Non-friendly and limited features of practice management solutions. Content is not well-produced and hard to follow. Occasional glitches

Cost

The regular maintenance of the PsycheTech solutions costs users a lot of money. The reports are majorly made for a small-sized company.

Data syncing

Difficulty in importing progress and process notes from other programs/solutions/apps. For some, the import process takes a lot of time.

- ✓ Keeping the solution/product/app budget-friendly for everyone.
- ✓ Instant access to appointment reminders
- ✓ Clients can also add or modify the psychologists/psychiatrists' notes after or during their therapy session

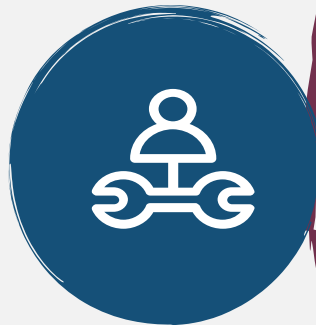

ONC-ATCB Certified

User-friendliness our top priority. Scheduling, adding clients and adding staff are all very easy and intuitive. Psychologists can add custom formats of forms and reports to make them as much useful as they want.

Two-way communication

A chat facility to each user. It will help them work more appropriately while efficiently and effectively communicating with their patients all the time on their on-going treatment.

Healthcare CRM

It has an easy to use CRM that is perfect for managing customer relationships and includes the most robust sync on the market! It has a fully integrated contact, relationship, email, calendar, document, sales, and task management solution.

Our Solution

Our state of art Psychologist management practice software is one of the ways by which the whole team of mental and behavioral practitioners can improve and can build a bridge between their clients and themselves.

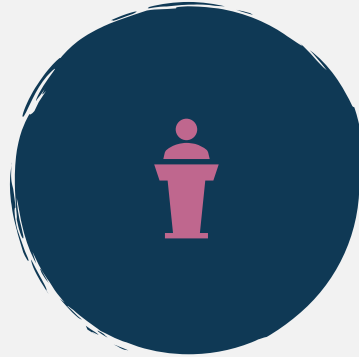

- ✓ User-friendly dashboard integration
- ✓ Platform for better data management and handling
- ✓ Artificial Intelligence/Machine Learning based strategies
